

Seaside Ranchos

By Mrs. Evelyn Hyder

The Bud Mewborns had as their guests for a few days, Mrs. George Wright from Philadelphia, Pa. Bud and George worked together as insurance adjusters in that area some time ago.

We have a new neighbor (well since Christmas) Mrs. Eleanor Eubank and her family. They are residing in the former home of the Russells on Doris Way. Eleanor has four children, Carolyn, Stephan, Linda, and John. With them is their housekeeper, Mrs. Emerise Berube, and her son Gerald. They moved here from Redondo. Mrs. Eubank is employed by the Daily Breeze in the advertising department.

Last Friday evening Pauline Doyle gave a stork shower for her friend Mrs. Tommy Jurkovic. The honored guest was presented with a pink rose corsage. The appointments were lovely, with a table centerpiece of sweet peas and blue cornflowers. The guests were served individual ice cream cakes in the shapes of pink and blue booties. The napkins were folded to represent little saucers.

Margaret and Paul Roettger entertained with a cookware demonstration dinner last Thursday evening. The delicious dinner was enjoyed by Virginia and Fred Knouse, Dorothy and Byron Johnson, Jack and Pauline Potts and Bob and me.

The Suter home on Doris Way was the scene of all-day festivities last Sunday. The occasion was to honor friends, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Vaughan from Missoula, Mont. Much of their visit during the last few months has been spent with Lola and Bo. The guests arrived at ten a.m. and were greeted with a breakfast of hotcakes prepared by Bo. The afternoon was spent with the men playing horseshoes and the women, canasta.

About six p.m., "Chef Bo" served French fried shrimp and potatoes, a tossed salad and dessert, buffet style. Bo says he served one hundred and sixty shrimp. They certainly must have been out of this world. The guests were, beside the honored ones, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stenstrup Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stenstrup Jr., from North Hollywood, Jack Fotham, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Suter Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Allen Dennison, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Smith, and Cindy and Danny, and Mr. Dan Creehan, all from Redondo Beach.

Wynn Spellman spent last week visiting her sister Mrs. K. T. Braithwaite of Altadena.

Wynn and Harvey Spellman attended a cocktail party at the home of M. J. Hines of Long Beach, Sunday afternoon.

A meeting of leaders and committee members of the Girl Scout troops in Seaside Ranchos was held in my home last Wednesday afternoon. Plans were made to attend the Harbor Section Annual Luncheon that was held at the Civic auditorium in Torrance Wednesday noon.

Here's what we have been waiting for. Square dancing started last night at the school; classes will be held each Wednesday evening at seven. Ceramics classes too, will be held each Tuesday evening at seven.

Did you see Betty Jenkins on last Friday afternoon? She appeared on the program to demonstrate her ability in decorating a cake. She had quite a professional touch and the results were too pretty to eat. Oh yes, Frank appeared too.
